Please comment:

Please explain why you think the Foyer is a positive and appropriate option for the applicant, taking into consideration:

- Ability to cope in a semi-independent environment with multiple occupants
- The requirement to commit to a personal support plan
- The general level of support the scheme can provide
- The requirement to adhere to house rules

It is particularly important why you think the applicant is ready for this type of scheme

Please comment on any known history of the applicant, especially relating to the following:

- Failed tenancies
- Violence or damage to property
- Criminal offences
- Issues surrounding drugs, alcohol or substance misuse
- Mental health issues including self harm and depression
- Problems with friends and associates

Please detail what support the applicant will continue to receive from you should the applicant be accepted into the scheme (e.g. eligibility for financial assistance, regular visits from their designated worker). Please list in the table below the nature and frequency of any other professional support/contact.

Support from you:

Level of support/contact from others:

Name	Agency	Detail level & frequency of support	Contact number(s) Including out-of-hours/emergency

Please ensure that the applicant fully understands the declaration and use of data that is outlined in the housing application form.
